2017 CVQ Quilt Show Challenge Quilt Registration and Intake Form

Quilt Challenge entry is limited to Conejo Valley Quilters members only. The Challenge Committee will endeavor to accept all quilts submitted; however, the Committee may reject a quilt for reasons of appropriateness or space availability.

CHALLENGE THEME: VINTAGE TO VANGUARD

Parameters: Challenge quilts cannot be any larger than 18" x 24"
Challenge quilts must include these three elements:
a section of Victorian-style crazy piecing
a section of modern piecing
a clock face

Challenge quilts may be made from any type of materials, but must be three layers quilted together consisting of a backing, an inner layer of batting, and a top.
Challenge quilts may be embellished as much or as little as desired.
Edges may be bound in any manner.

You MUST turn in this registration form, along with your completed quilt, on or before August 21, 2017.

Completed challenge quilts are due on or before the CVQ meeting on August 21, 2017. Do not put your name or any identifying information on the front of your quilt. Your quilt will be assigned a number at the time it is turned in during acquisition. You can turn in your challenge quilt:

1. At Any CVQ Meeting between now and August 21, 2017
2. At Sherry Ramaila's House (see address at top), or
3. By Appointment (text, call or email Sherry Ramaila)

Every effort will be made to safeguard all quilts entered. However, CVQ is not liable for loss, damage, or theft to quilts. Insurance is not provided by CVQ. Your quilt may be photographed at the show.
