

2017 QUILT SHOW CHALLENGE

Theme: "Vintage to Vanguard" - The History of Quilting from the Victorian Era to the new Modern Movement

Participation: Challenge is open to members of Conejo Valley Quilters only

Maximum Size: Challenge quilts cannot be any larger than 18" x 24"

Parameters: Challenge quilts must include these three elements:

a section of Victorian-style crazy piecing

a section of modern piecing

a clock face

Challenge quilts may be made from any type of materials, but must be three layers quilted together consisting of a backing, an inner layer of batting, and a top.

Challenge quilts may be embellished as much or as little as desired.

Edges may be bound in any manner.

Due Date: Challenge quilts are due on or before the August 21 CVQ general meeting. Registration forms will be available beginning in February at the general meeting and on the CVQ website.