CVQ Board & Committees	11

Dear CVQ Quilters,

Are you as excited about our Quilt and Room tour as I am? Are your fingers as sore as mine from sewing? Are you busy making wonderful and cute things to sell at our boutique on September 21st? Our BIG EVENT of 2019 is just a few weeks away. Make that a few days! We are into the home stretch. The committee has put in many hours to make this a successful event. If you haven't had a chance to volunteer, please contact Judy Heitz. We still need a few more helpers.

Our speakers coming up for the General Meetings include Lisa Hanson from Quilt Emporium in September and Dora Cary will talk about Modern Quilting in October. Samples of Dora's quilts for her Orange Dots workshop will be at the table with Janine Mansell and Chris Stout. They would love to have you sign up to come.

And I close with this poem, Keep Me in Stitches by Bee Neely Kuckelman:

*You can take my TV and my trips to the beach.
I don't mind if I miss that political speech.
When I skip a good movie I won't feel any guilt.
If you'll let me stay home and sew on a quilt,
Or maybe a hanging, perhaps a new vest.
With a project to work on, I'm feeling my best.
I won't darn old socks, and seldom mend britches,
But don't take my quilting.
Keep me in stitches!*

Keep Stitching! We need you!

Speaker Spotlight

Lisa Hanson—September

Lisa Hanson bought the Quilt Emporium in April of 2011 with the intention of keeping the store exactly as it was. She quickly learned that nothing stays the same and the Quilt Emporium continues to evolve and grow.

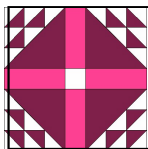

Their goal is to keep quilting alive by engaging new quilters and providing exciting fabrics, patterns, tools, notions and inspiration to keep the art fresh for even the most experienced of quilters.

Today they offer a wide variety of classes for all levels of sewists and quilters. They also have a large number of Extreme Appliqués, a group of seriously accomplished sewists who are expert in hand appliqué. Many of them teach classes at the shop.

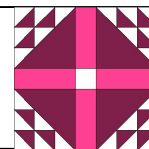

From cotton, wool, soy and bamboo batting to brand name threads, you'll find everything you need for your next quilting project in one spot. They offer fun block-of-the-month programs, and many of their knowledgeable staff have been there for years.

At Quilt Emporium, they know their customers by name and are interested in their lives. Stop by and find out why they are one of the friendliest quilt shops in Southern California.

REMINDER FOR NEWSLETTER ARTICLES: The Newsletter
Deadline is Saturday—September 21.

CVQ Guild News

Activities

Initial Quilts, the Summer Challenge, will be due at the September General Meeting. Please bring your quilts to show everyone. The Fall Challenge will be Curves & Circles. Challenge yourself to try sewing curved seams, appliqué circles, or any other non-linear pattern. If you can't make the October workshop, you may get credit on your pyramid for participating at the Fourth Monday Sewing Party.

Keep up the good work.

Philanthropy

Philanthropy donated six quilts to James Storehouse in August. Photos are posted on our Website under Photo Gallery, Philanthropy Photos.

Stop by the Philanthropy table to pick up a project, add a border or sew some squares together. The biggest need is to quilt. Thank you to all who have quilted. Remember quilting a philanthropy quilt is a great opportunity to fine tune your quilting skills. You can either free-motion quilt, straight line quilt or a combination of both techniques.

Thank you

Lisa Shepherd and Kathy Dobner

4th Monday Sewing Party All are welcome!

September 23, 2019 is the next 4th Monday Sewing Party. The room is ours from 10:00 – 4:00. As always, come when you can, leave when you must. The address is Municipal Service Center, 1993 Rancho Conejo Blvd., Newbury Park, 91320. Bring everything you need to sew for the day and something for lunch. Power cords and ironing board/iron are provided.

Come and unwind after the Room Tour.

The remaining 4th Monday Sewing Party dates in 2019 are October 28 and November 25. For more information, contact me at j_9@sbcglobal.net or 818-802-0628.

See you there,

Janine Mansell

SUNSHINE & SHADOWS

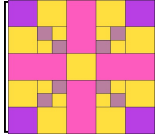

You thought it was sunny at your house, but the real, grand(son)SUN has been pouring into the lives of Julie Snow and family for a month now. Congratulations!! I wonder if she will share some of that cuddly “sonshine” at our tour? We hope September fills all of our guild members lives with sunny smiles! Be sure to send some smiles and get well wishes to Josie, who took quite a spill off her bike. We hope you heal soon!

We all have triumphs and troubles. Some are private and personal, while others invite celebration and consolation. CVQ cares about each of you! If you know of a member who would love kudos or comfort, please contact Monica Sayre (818-917-0389 or masayre77@gmail.com). A card or e-card will be sent and if appropriate and desired, a notice written in the following newsletter.

Sarah's Tips

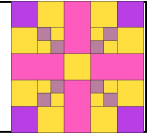

- ◆ Use a water bottle with a pull-on cap for refilling your iron. You can store water and easily refill iron when you are in the middle of a big project.
- ◆ Put a little rubber cement on the back of templates used over and over to cut out pattern pieces. It prevents slipping when marking around pieces before cutting.
- ◆ Stressed spelled backwards is Desserts ☺

Happy Sewing!

Ways & Means

Rosanne Lieban and Janet Hinderer

Congratulations to all of the lucky August 2019 Winners! We made $128.00 in sales. Thank you to all who participated in Ways & Means.

Ways & Means would appreciate any “Kits, charm packs, unfinished quilt projects” that you can contribute to the Ways & Means Committee.

Thanks for helping support our guild.

2019 Quilt Rooms and Gardens Tour

September 21, 2019 10:00 am to 4:00 pm

Boutique and Complimentary Refreshments

Tickets $25/person: www.conejovalleyquilters.com

We are down to the wire! Please read the following subject paragraphs and pay attention to the last-minute things we need to do. Keep passing out bookmarks, sewing those wonderful fabric items for the boutique, and think about the goodies and snacks you can bring for refreshments on THE DAY!!! See you there!

Our last Quilt Tour Planning meeting is Tuesday, September 3, 7pm at Monica Sayre's home. All are welcome to attend.

See you there!

With only a few days left until the tour, please pick up a stack of bookmarks to give to friends and local businesses. There are still plenty left and the more coverage we can get, the more likely we can reach someone that might not be aware or that had forgotten it was coming up. They are available at the 4th Monday Sew Party and the general meeting. Please contact one of us and I will bring a stack to you! Let's make this a successful event and fundraiser.

Quilt Tour Refreshments

We need your help to provide refreshments for our guests at the TEA portion of our Quilt room tour in September. Please be thinking about what items you can make and let Peggie know what you will be bringing so we don't have duplications.

Let Peggie know by email what you are planning on bringing so she can keep track of what is still needed.

Thanks in advance for your help!

Quilt Tour Quilt Acquisitions

Conejo Valley Quilters, we want your quilts for display!

Our Quilt Rooms & Gardens Tour is just over two weeks from now! We have received registration forms from half of our members representing a total of 50-60 quilts. Display cards will be finalized the weekend after Labor Day, so don't be shy about sending in your picture and form, but you must do it TODAY. Please visit our website or contact Monica Sayre for instructions.

QUILT DROP-OFF - Quilts which have been registered will be collected at the following times:

- ◆ Saturday, September 14 at Cotton and Chocolate, 1:00-4:00PM.
- ◆ At the September 16 General meeting.
- ◆ If you can't make these dates/times, please contact Roz Thebaud or Monica Sayre.

QUILT PICK-UP – You will receive a “receipt” for each quilt that will be displayed at the time of drop-off. Please bring the receipts with you to pick up your quilts, or make sure that whoever picks up your quilts has the receipts.

- ◆ All quilts will be available for pick up after the Tour event in the parking lot of Ascension Lutheran Church at approximately 5PM.
- ◆ We are arranging for quilts that are hung at other homes to be brought back to Ascension.
- ◆ Please contact Monica Sayre if you are unable to pick up your quilts by 6PM.

Quilt Tour Hostesses

We are still in need of 3-4 volunteers to be docents at the hostess homes on Sept. 21. Can you help? One person is needed from 1-4:00 p.m. at Sarah Hart's home. One person is needed at Pauline Matthews' home for the early shift from 10-1:00p.m..

All volunteers are asked to show up a little before the morning shift and/or stay a little after the afternoon shift. You will truly enjoy your time in these members' lovely, quilt-filled homes while greeting guests and possibly recruiting new members for our guild!

Please contact Donna Wood at 303-902-5989 or at donnawood222@gmail.com to volunteer.

Thank you!

Donna Wood

Quilt Tour Boutique

Thanks to all of you who have made, are making or intend to make items for the September 21, 2019 Boutique. If you are considering making something in addition to what you have already done, I suggest you make that favorite-gift you would make to give to a friend. Likely it is something you enjoy making and do so efficiently. You could make one for a friend plus one or more for the Boutique!

It is difficult to know what people will buy so a wide variety of items is our target. We want to have something all for all of the end of the year holidays—think of Halloween, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Chanukah as well as birthdays.

We want the boutique items to be tempting to quilters and non-quilters. Hopefully the tour crowd will walk away with much of their holiday gift purchasing done.

Drop off any item you have made at the September 16th General Meeting. The sooner Lisa and I get the boutique items the better so we can price them. We only have two hours to set up the Boutique!

Thank you for what you have done or will be doing. We want to make the Boutique fun and profitable.

Kathy Dobner and Lisa Shepherd

Quilt Tour Suggestion

If you want to send personal invitations to family and friends online, we suggest emailing them a link to the website (www.conejovalleyquilters.com) where they can get information on the quilt rooms and gardens tour as well as order tickets.
